

SWOSU Block Becomes One-Way on August 6

08.03.2012

The one-block street between Rankin Williams Fieldhouse and the Al Harris Library (Broadway Street) on the SWOSU campus becomes a one-way street in the south direction on Monday, August 6. The one-block street connects with the existing one-way traffic on Campus Drive.

The one-block street between Rankin Williams Fieldhouse and the Al Harris Library (Broadway Street) on the campus of Southwestern Oklahoma State University will become a one-way street in the south direction on Monday, August 6.

Rick Skinner, director of the physical plant, said the change will make the street a safer pedestrian traffic area for SWOSU students and the general public.

The one-block street connects with the existing one-way traffic on Campus Drive.